Dear Ms. Jones:

Thank you for your October 29, 1998 response (which we received on December 7th) to our September 15th letter regarding Florida appraiser disciplinary actions. You raised two issues that we would like to clarify.

You stated that you had checked the May 22nd and August 24th documentation sent to us and did not find any codes "S" and "R" for Suspensions and Revocations. Without reviewing historical data, I'm guessing that these codes were sent to us in past years. The numeric coding for disciplinary actions was implemented in September 1997. Prior to that date, many States used "S" and "R" to indicate Suspensions and Revocations. We have checked all Florida Registry entries to ensure that the proper numeric codes are recorded.

On your item #2, you stated "...I was not aware that you only want revocation/suspensions on the list." We're not sure what this statement references. In any event, we would like to have all disciplinary actions. For your convenience, we have attached a summary form for National Registry data submission guidance. The codes for Disciplinary Actions are listed on the second page.

Thank you for your assistance. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Ben Henson
Executive Director
